

Guilty Pleasures™

Shameless Blameless Fun!™

Guilty Pleasures is the "putative global phenomenon" (The Guardian) that has been taking clubs, festivals and the entertainment world by storm selling out 500-3,000 capacity venues across the UK and Europe.

What is Guilty Pleasures?

Guilty Pleasures is an unashamedly glorious celebration of pop music with an all-singing, all-dancing troupe of DJs and dancers. Created by broadcaster Sean Rowley, Guilty Pleasures has gone from a weekly slot on his BBC London show to, in the space of six years, one of the biggest events and movements of the music scene. Currently hosting monthly residencies at some of the most celebrated venues in London, Manchester and Brighton, as well as producing radio and TV shows, several compilation cds and a place in the vocabulary of our nation. With new residencies in Dubai and Barcelona they've just added another jaunty feather in their disco cap, spreading the gospel of pop worldwide.

Renowned for their spectacular parties, Guilty Pleasures is often called on to play some of the biggest events. From opening Glastonbury Festival, supporting Take That on a NYE concert through to having the honour of opening for George Michael at his historical Wembley Stadium dates, they are the first name on any promoters' lips when they want to start their show with a bang.

Music is our first love...

The music played is straight up pop, which for years was shamefully hidden away in people's record collections, as they daren't admit their love for Toto, Hall and Oates or Dolly Parton. We set these records free and our cast of djs, dancers and performers extraordinaire rejoice in them to dizzy heights of euphoric glee.

A definite feast for the eyes and ears, every Guilty Pleasures show is packed full of entertainment – an all-killer, no filler of a party bringing the sparkle, excitement and sheer unbridled enthusiasm to each and every show.

A Guilty Pleasures party includes:

DJs, dancers, flyers, social networking coverage and on-line content and management as well as one of the best nights out of your lives.

Guilty Pleasures is wholeheartedly supported in the UK press and currently stands at over 15,000 (and counting) unique users/followers on the Guilty Pleasures mailing list.

So join us on the dance floor for a musical spectacular of top pop revelry!
